Welcome to this extraordinary journey into the world of filmmaking and cultural exploration. This camp hopes to be a transformative experience and Good Vibes ^_^

OBJECTIVES

Our main goal is to grow, collaborate and inspire aspiring creatives like you.

This camp isn't just about filmmaking; it's about immersing ourselves into the Himba community. By living among them, we seek to offer a unique cultural experience that fosters a deep understanding of their customs, traditions, and way of life.

Through a short film and a documentary web series, we will experience leaving our normal lives to a new lifestyle for content creation, network and creating an educational movement for generations to come.

The vision extends beyond this camp; we aim to establish lasting relationships with everyone to ensure the continuous growth and sustainability of this unique filmmaking experience.

Through the lens of your cameras, we want to showcase the breathtaking beauty of us coming together to have fun creating, and experiencing Namibia and its vibrant Himba culture.
